Women’s History Exhibit Opens at Fort Caspar Museum

Casper, Wyoming – Fort Caspar Museum announces a change in special exhibits. “In Pursuit of Equality” will be available for viewing from February 2nd through March 24th. This exhibit tells the story of Nelly Tayloe Ross, Thyra Thomson, and Elizabeth Byrd, three Wyoming women who through their actions as elected office holders, challenged and changed the conventional understanding of equality in Wyoming during the 20th century. Today, the true meaning of equality is still being explored and debated in Wyoming. The exhibit is from the American Heritage Center in Laramie.

For more information call 235-8462 or check our website at www.fortcasparwyoming.com. The museum is open Tuesday – Saturday, from 8:00 am – 5:00 pm. Admission is free for Children 12 & Under, $1.00 for Youth 13-18, and $1.50 for Adults. Fort Caspar Museum is located at 4001 Fort Caspar Road.
