Family Fun Program at Fort Caspar Museum An Old-Fashioned Christmas

Casper, Wyoming – Fort Caspar Museum invites kids and families to participate in fun hands-on activities at the museum in December. This is part of the Family Fun Program Series at the museum throughout the year.

Students in 4th-8th grade are eligible for an ornament making workshop on Saturday, December 12th from 2:00-3:00 pm. They will make feather stars, a Victorian Christmas ornament to take home with them. This activity involves sewing with a needle and thread. Space is limited to 15 students. Call 235-8462 to reserve a spot! There is a $1.00 special activity fee.

On Saturday, December 19th, families can stop by the classroom at the museum anytime between 10:00 am to 1:00 pm to make old-fashioned Christmas ornaments. Choose between ornaments of trees, fish, candy canes or paper chains. This activity is recommended for Kindergarten – 3rd grade. The activity is free with admission. Children 12 & Under are free, Youth 13-18 $1.00 and Adults $1.50. All participating children must be accompanied by an adult.
